

Making & Analyzing Inferences (CCSS RL.1; RI.1)

Forget the fox! What did the text say?
Quote directly from the text

What does it mean?
What it means literally

Underlined words only

“ 1. They ambled across the square, shuffled in and out of stores around it. . . . ”

2. “ . . . I had felt her tyrannical presence as long as I could remember. ”

3. The Radley Place was inhabited by an unknown entity the mere description of whom was enough to make us behave for days on end.

What else could this mean?
What this implies, what we can infer

How do I know?
Details & evidence that back up this claim

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Making & Analyzing Inferences (CCS RL.1; RI.1)

Forget the fox! What did the text say?

{Quote directly from the text}

“ Dill was a curiosity. He wore blue linen shorts that buttoned to his shirt, his hair was snow white and stuck to his head like duckfluff; he was a year my senior but I towered over him. As he told us the old tale his blue eyes would lighten and darker; ... ”

What does it mean?

{What it means literally}

Underlined words only

What else could this mean?

{What this implies; what we can infer}

How do I know?

{Details & evidence that back up this claim}